I BEG you will please to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that I sailed from this Place on the 25th Instant, for the Protection of the Herring Fishery; and the next Day, being cruising off Munley, received Information that a French Cutter Privateer had taken a Brig and Sloop near Cromer; upon which I immediately made Sail, and soon after discovered them; when after a short Chase I recaptured the Brig and Sloop, and renewed the Chase after the Cutter, which I also took after a Chase of Five Hours: She proves to be L'Escamateur of Dunkirk, commanded by one Thomas Roberts, an American, mounting Fourteen Four Pounders (but pierced for Sixteen) and Sixty five Men. I arrived here this Afternoon, and have brought her with me: She had been from Dunkirk Three Days, and had taken nothing but the Brig and Sloop.
